All dollar amounts in this SoA are in today's dollars, even when we mention future income, expenses, investment amounts and so on. Naturally we can't predict what future inflation rates will be, so we can only make assumptions based on past trends. Also, all amounts listed in this document are "p.a." (per annum) unless otherwise stated or implied.

We are committed to giving you the best products for your situation. When preparing your advice we considered and recommended only those products on Pareto Group's "Approved Product List". This list was compiled by a dedicated Investment Review Committee, which regularly reviews it. To see the complete product list, please ask us.

Our Investment Recommendations

In respect of the specific investments we recommend as part of our advice you are entitled to a 14 day cooling off period for your initial investment. A cooling off period generally means a period of time after which you have provided your capital for investment, where you can change your mind and request for your capital to be returned to you.

Each fund manager or investment provider may implement the cooling off period in a slightly different manner. Therefore, we recommend you refer to the Product Disclosure Statement for each of the recommended investments in order to understand the operation of each provider's cooling off period.

The Planning Process

Previn and Deebthika, Financial Planning is a process to help you reach both your Personal and Financial Goals and Objectives. In order to achieve this, we jointly need to undertake a number of tasks, including:

- ✓ Confirm your personal goals and lifestyle objectives;
- ✓ Quantify the resources required to meet your goals and objectives;
- ✓ Identify any gaps in your current plans and your stated goals and objectives;
- ✓ Develop suitable strategies to address any differences that may exist bearing in mind your attitude to investing and your risk profile;
- ✓ Conduct a regular review of the strategies we put into effect to ensure they keep pace with your changing needs, legislative changes and the investment environment.

Executive Summary

In this plan our advice considers the following areas of your financial circumstances.

Your Goals and Objectives

After our discussions I have listed below what we agreed were your key goals and objectives. The points listed below form the basis of the plan I have prepared, and therefore you should read them carefully now to ensure that we have an accurate foundation on which to proceed. If there are any modifications required, please advise us prior to the commencement of your financial plan.

Your goals and objectives are to:

- Review your superannuation portfolio.
- You are interested in managing your own super fund to maximise your returns and you would like to place your future assets within the fund to maximise tax effectiveness.

Recommendation Overview

Considering your stated goals and objectives, investor risk profile and age we recommend that you:

Establish a Self-Managed Superannuation Fund (SMSF)

A super fund is generally a self-managed super fund (SMSF) if:

- It has 4 or less members;
- No member of the fund is an employee of another member of the fund (unless they are related);
- Each member is a trustee, and
- No trustee of the fund receives any remuneration for their services as a trustee.

Since you are over 18 years of age, not under a legal disability and have not been disqualified*, you are eligible to be a trustee.

There are several detailed steps involved in establishing and managing an SMSF. Briefly, as trustee of an SMSF you are required to:

1. Establish your fund which includes appointing trustees (ie yourself as director of the corporate trustee) and make an irrevocable election to be regulated, obtain a tax file number and Australian business number.
2. Comply with all legislative requirements at all times – especially the SIS legislation which is the principle piece of legislation regulating super funds.
3. Comply with the sole purpose test. The object of this test is to ensure that SMSFs are maintained for the purpose of providing benefits to members upon their retirement, or their dependants if one of you dies before retirement.
4. Accept contributions in accordance with the SIS legislation and your trust deed.
5. Manage your fund's investments which includes having an investment strategy and complying with the investment restrictions associated with SMSFs. For example, as trustee, you are prohibited from lending money or providing direct or indirect financial assistance* from the fund to a member or a member's relative.
6. Pay benefits in accordance with SIS legislation. In order to do this, you must understand when benefits can be paid to members and in what form (i.e. as a lump sum, and or income stream).
7. Meet lodgement and administrative obligations of which there are several including annual income tax and regulatory returns as well as record keeping requirements.
8. You must appoint an approved auditor to audit the operations of the fund each year or part year the fund is in existence. The auditor is required to assess the fund's overall compliance with SIS legislation and the fund's financial statements.

 This includes the provision of credit.*

To protect your retirement income the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) regulates SMSFs to ensure they comply with SIS legislation. Failure to comply is known as a 'contravention' of the applicable legislation and may result in the ATO taking compliance action against you.

Accordingly, it is vital that you understand and conduct your obligations as trustee of the fund to the utmost of your ability.

Recommendation:

- Previn and Deebthika, rollover the balance of your respective Australian Super and First State Super funds to the SMSF, which is to be set up by MW Partners.
- To assist you with understanding your role and responsibilities as trustees, I have enclosed at Appendix A the ATO's recent publication entitled: Running a Self-Managed Super Fund. You will need to read, become familiar with and abide by the information contained within this document and please don't hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.

Risks of having an SMSF:

- Running an SMSF can be expensive if you don't manage all costs, fees and charges of the products and services you use.
- As outlined above, you face ongoing, onerous responsibilities as trustees of an SMSF. That said, by reading the enclosed material in Appendix A, working with SMSF specialists and being proactive about your responsibilities, your fund should run smoothly.

Superannuation Funds

Previn and Deebthika, you currently have the following superannuation funds:

Previn

Care Super – Member Number 41344617

- The fund currently has a withdrawal value of approximately $126,371.

Note: Your funds are invested as follows:

Investment	Actual Portfolio
Growth Option	50%
Balanced Option	50%

Deebthika

First State Super – Account Number 10797815

- The fund currently has a withdrawal value of approximately $70,768

Note: Your funds are invested as follows:

Investment	Actual Portfolio
Growth Option	100%

Recommendation:

- Given the recent dramatic decline in markets worldwide (and subsequent drop in superannuation balances), rather than roll these funds across to the SMSF immediately, consideration should be given to the following:
 - Make concessional superannuation contributions of $25,000 each into the SMSF
 - Consider making non-concessional contributions (amounts to be determined) to assist with the SMSF's property purchase
 - When the current Australian and Global market conditions stabilise, roll the respective Care Super and First State Super funds into the SMSF.
- All future contributions should be made to the SMSF.

Note: Previn's Australian Super Fund and Deebthika's First State Super Fund should not be rolled over until appropriate replacement insurances are put in place. Alternatively, these Super Funds should be left open in order to maintain the insurances currently contained within the fund.

Basis for the recommendation:

- Establishing your own SMSF suits your needs and objectives, providing you with an appropriate alternative to your existing funds.
- Once the funds are in your SMSF, as the trustee of the fund you are responsible for your own investment strategy which includes asset allocation. Accordingly, you will be able to ensure that the fund's assets are invested in accordance with your risk profile.

Your Self-Managed Superannuation Fund

The Role a Trust Deed Plays in a SMSF.

A SMSF cannot exist without a trust deed. The trust deed is a legal document that establishes the fund and provides the rules for its day to day operations and member entitlements. The trust deed should include rules that:

- Control who can be a trustee and who cannot be a trustee, what the trustee can do and what the trustee can't do, how the trustee can retire and a new trustee appointed, what the trustee can be paid and so on
- Describe who can be a member
- Describe what contributions can be accepted and from whom
- Describe the lump sum and pension benefits, and how they are calculated, on retirement, on death or permanent disability, or on serious financial hardship
- Describe how the decisions of the trustee should be made
- Describe the types and rules for death benefit nominations
- Facilitate the preparation and implementation of an investment strategy
- Allow members access to all relevant fund documents

The SMSF Investment Objective

- The sole purpose of the fund is to provide a lump sum or pension benefits upon retirement or death.
- The investment objective of the fund is to provide real, medium to longer term growth in the value of the assets held by the fund either through capital growth in the value of existing investments or by the reinvestment of income generated by existing investments.

Other Considerations of the SMSF

Trustee responsibilities

Previn and Deebthika, as the trustees of your SMSF you are responsible for compliance with a range of investment related requirements including the investment strategy covenant and various restrictions on investments and benefits including those related to:

- lending to members or their relatives
- *acquiring assets from members or their relatives (as mentioned below)
- in-house assets (for example, a loan from the fund to a related company or trust)
- arm's-length transactions (for example, a fair market value must be paid if the fund acquires listed shares from a member or relative)
- borrowing by the fund
- member reporting obligations (including annual statements)
- contribution acceptance standards
- benefit payment standards.

*A superannuation fund may only purchase certain types of investments (at market value) from you or an associate, such as a relative. These include shares listed in Australia or on an approved overseas stock exchange, units in retail unit trusts and business real property used wholly for any commercial business. The transfer of virtually all other assets that a member already owns into the fund may incur fines or criminal prosecution.

The SMSF Investment Strategy

As per relevant legislation under Section 52(2) (f) of the SIS Act, an investment strategy should be formulated by the trustees. This is the fund's plan to make, hold and realise fund assets. This strategy should be consistent with your investment objectives specific to the fund. The investment strategy should take into account certain elements as set down by the aforementioned legislation:

- diversification
- risk and return (refer to risk profile section)
- liquidity and cashflow (refer below)
- Expression of investment strategy – strategy must be clear and unambiguous.
- Trustee Minutes – minutes must be taken to demonstrate that relevant issues relating to statutory and non statutory matters have been considered.
- Giving Effect to Strategy – implementing the investment strategy.
- Fund Reserves – Reserving policy which reduces volatility of returns and provides investment performance smoothing for the fund. In good performance years the reserves are increased and in underperforming years funds are taken from the reserve to prop up lacklustre performance in the fund.
- Segregation of Fund Assets – Assets of an SMSF can be maintained at fund level or allocated to individual members. Returns are also allocated in this instance.

In addition to diversification across asset classes, in order to manage risk, the fund will seek to diversify the portfolio across individual assets, sectors within asset classes, and investment managers.

The fund's investments may include:

- direct equities, stocks and derivatives and include the participation in dividend reinvestment programs, rights issues and the like
- property trusts and associated investments, direct residential, industrial or commercial property investment
- managed investments and associated products
- bank and other financial institution securities including term deposits and debentures
- secured and unsecured notes and bonds
- any other investment which would not prejudice Government Approval of the Fund.

The liquidity and cashflow of the fund and its investments will be managed to ensure that the fund is able to pay all expenses, tax and member benefits as and when they are likely to become due.

Example SMSF Investment Strategy

Investment objectives

Long term (5 – 7 years)

- To enhance the value of the members savings, and
- To achieve a long term return of at least inflation (as measured by CPI) plus 3.5% per annum over rolling 5 year periods, which historically equates to the real rate of return which may be expected from a balanced portfolio.

Short term (2 years or less)

- To ensure the fund provides positive returns in most financial years, and
- To ensure sufficient liquidity to meet operating expenses and taxation liabilities as they fall due.

Investment strategy

The investment strategy is the method to be implemented in order for the trustees to achieve the investment objective. The investment strategy of the trustee is to invest the fund's assets in the following portfolios:

Portfolio	Range	Benchmark Growth
Australian shares	40% - 45%	43%
International shares	22% – 27%	25%
Property	15% - 20%	17%
Fixed interest	10% - 15%	13%
Cash	0% - 5%	2%

These ranges are purely indicative (being based on your investor risk profile) and the trustee may vary the allocations at any time if satisfied that conditions warrant such a change. In arriving at the investment strategy, the trustees considered the following:

Diversification of investment strategy

You should consider the diversification of the fund's investments, and be of the opinion that the strategy is appropriate given the size of the fund in terms of both investments and the number of members.

Liquidity of the investment strategy

You must be of the opinion that the investment strategy is structured in such a manner so that the fund is sufficiently liquid to discharge its current and future liabilities.

Short-term liabilities include lump sum payments, tax liabilities, annual return fees, accounting fees and audit fees.

Borrowing to invest in Property in a SMSF

Background

From 24 September 2007 the general prohibition on superannuation funds borrowing was relaxed to allow super funds, including SMSFs, to borrow, to purchase any asset they would otherwise be permitted to acquire.

How do these rules work?

These rules allow a super fund trustee to borrow money or to maintain a borrowing of money, under an arrangement where:

- the borrowing is applied for the acquisition of an asset other than one the super fund trustee would be prohibited from acquiring
- the asset is held on trust for the super fund so that the trustee acquires the beneficial interest in the asset (ie a trust is established over the asset)
- the super fund trustee has the right to acquire legal ownership of the asset after making one or more payments, and
- the rights of the lender against the super fund trustee in relation to the borrowing (and any related charges) are limited to the rights relating to the asset

Who can make a loan to a Fund; can it be a member or a bank?

There are no restrictions on who can make a loan to a Fund. Therefore, a member, a bank or any other entity could make a loan to a Fund provided the loan complies with the Superannuation Industry Supervision Act (SISA) borrowing Requirements.

Trust arrangements

A requirement of the borrowing exemption is that the asset must be held on trust for the SMSF so that the SMSF acquires the beneficial interest in the asset. That is, the SMSF will not be permitted to directly hold the legal ownership of the asset until it has paid off the loan.

A trust relationship must be established to satisfy the borrowing rules. This could be achieved by the SMSF entering into a trust relationship with another entity, such as a member of the fund, to separate the legal and beneficial ownership of an asset. In this case, the entity holding the legal ownership of the asset would be the trustee, while the SMSF would be the beneficiary and hold the beneficial ownership of the asset. As the beneficial owner of the asset, the SMSF would be entitled to all the income from the asset and is able to instruct the separate trustee to transfer the ownership of the asset to the SMSF on repayment of the loan.

Loan requirements and practical issues

In order for the borrowing to be allowable the loan must be on a limited recourse basis only. That is, the rights of the lender against the SMSF trustee for any default on the borrowing (and any additional charges) must be limited to the rights relating to the asset that was purchased with the borrowing. These rights may include taking possession and disposing of the asset. For example, if a SMSF borrowed money to purchase an asset, such as a commercial property, the rights of the lender against the SMSF must be limited to the rights relating to that particular asset (or any replacement asset). If the SMSF then defaulted, the lender's recourse would only be against that asset. If there was any shortfall on the sale of the property that loss would be borne by the lender.

From a practical perspective the requirement for a limited recourse loan will effectively limit the amount a SMSF trustee can borrow. That is, some lenders may only be willing to lend up to a certain Loan to Value Ratio (LVR) on certain asset classes, such as property. For example, a bank lender may only be willing to lend on direct property and only up to a maximum 70% LVR.

The interest rate for a limited recourse loan may also be higher to reflect the higher risk to the lender. This may also limit a SMSF's ability to borrow in many circumstances. For example, a lender may be willing to go up to an 80% LVR on an asset but the interest rate may be so high as to make the loan so expensive, which results in losses to the SMSF.
